TOP PARTNERS

ADIDAS

As a Top partner of INSEP, adidas supports sporting performance and champions the athletes of today and tomorrow within the establishment.

OFFICIAL PARTNERS

DANONE

Danone, world leader in food and nutrition, and INSEP have joined forces around shared values to create a lasting and meaningful partnership for both entities. Danone thus became an "Official Partner" of INSEP on December 22, 2023. The focus is on integrating the HiPRO range, a selection of protein-rich dairy products designed to support muscle recovery and enhance athletes' sporting performance. The collaboration goes beyond supplying food products. It also involves collaborative work in the development and testing of new innovations, in close cooperation with INSEP athletes and nutritionists.

TOYOTA TOYOTA

As a result of a common vision to fight against air pollution, Toyota joins INSEP as an official partner. The two partners are joining forces to deploy Toyota's innovative technologies for clean mobility on INSEP's site, making available to the institution the most advanced technologies in the field of mobility, including hydrogen, a clean energy source.
